15 SCHEDULING ORDER

16 [Docket No. 20]

17 Pending before the Court is the parties' proposed discovery plan. Docket No. 20. The 18 parties measure the discovery period from the date of the Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(f)
19 conference, rather than the date of removal. See id. at 2. No justification was provided to the 20 Court to measure the discovery period from this date, which would result in the parties having over 21 a month longer than the presumptively reasonable discovery period without requesting special
22 scheduling, as required by the Local Rules. See Local Rule 26-1. Additionally, the parties submit 23 that they are to make their initial disclosures on November 12, 2021, which is 64 days after the 24 26(f) conference. The parties, however, must make initial disclosures within 14 days of the Rule
25 26(f) conference. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1)(C). Accordingly, the discovery plan is GRANTED
26 in part and DENIED in part. Deadlines are hereby SET as follows:
